

18 September 1951

Major General A. R. Bolling
Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2
Department of the Army
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Bolling:

25X1A9a

General Smith has suggested that I reply directly to your letter of September 11th. We shall be delighted to have [REDACTED] address your Counter Intelligence Corps Detachment Commanders Conference at Fort Holabird on the role and place of CIA in the national intelligence system. Either date will be acceptable to him. If you prefer, you may have Holabird make the necessary arrangements directly with [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

C. E. Hansen
Colonel, USAF
Assistant to the Director
